

Guidelines

1. Government of India's quota of 165 tenure members (Long Term Temporary Membership), in the India Habitat Centre (IHC) will be open only to officers of the Civil Services of the rank of Director and above who are on deputation with the Government of India (GOI), excluding those borne on Union Territories, for a fixed tenure and posted to Delhi and Members of Parliament who are interested in the habitat concept. All such members will be nominated by the Ministry of Urban Development.
2. Members of the Civil Services/Members of Parliament are desirous of obtaining tenure membership in the IHC must apply for this facility to the Ministry (M/o HUA) in the prescribed format.
3. Any member of Civil Services/Members of Parliament who is already a tenure member in the Delhi Golf Club (DGC) shall not be eligible for tenure membership in the IHC.
4. While seniority, in the waiting list for the tenure membership will be with the reference to the date of receipt of application in the Ministry of Urban Development, preference will be given to Members of Parliament on priority basis subject to a ceiling of 15 slots (revised). Similarly, preferential membership shall be given to the Secretaries, Special Secretaries and Additional Secretaries to Govt. of India subject to a ceiling of 55 slots (revised). All interested and eligible officers in the Ministry of Urban Development on regular posting through Central Staffing Scheme and such other interested and eligible officers as are recommended for out of turn membership by the Ministry will be given preference.
5. The terms of tenure member from the date of enrolment shall be limited to either five years or till the date of completion of his/her tenure or the date of retirement from service or the date of enrolment as Individual/Associate Member in the IHC, whichever is earlier. If the officer stays beyond his/her tenure of five years on Central Deputation in Delhi, his membership in the Club will be co-terminus with his/her tenure.
6. The tenure members will be subject to all the membership rules and discipline of IHC and its Governing Council.

7. There shall be one unified waiting list for all eligible members based on the date of application. Preference shall be given in the manner as detailed in Para 4 above.

8. Those applicants who have been given membership of one of the clubs they would be asked their choice to either retain the membership of it or give it up to take the membership of other club. Their choice would be of relevance if asked when they become ripe for membership of other club.

9. In case, the officers who have been nominated for a tenure membership in either of the clubs i.e. DGC/IHC) while they were posted on Central Deputation under Central Staffing Scheme through DoPT, gets repatriated (in case of AIS officers) back to their State Cadre or to their parent Department (in case of Central Services); may be given the opportunity to consume the left over period of their tenure membership (in both the cases) if they are holding their new post in Delhi.

10. Name of those applicant officers who are not on deputation with GOI may not be considered for nomination. Waiting list will accordingly be revised.
